Intern

Years: 0 - 2

Position Summary

Entry level position in the Miami office requiring either a completed professional degree or ongoing studies in a professional Co-Op program. Includes Interior Designer / Intern Architects working toward Licensure or Certification; Strong detail-oriented design ability and exceptional graphic skills are required. Candidates must be proficient with REVIT, AutoCAD, Sketch-Up and Photoshop.

Essential Job Functions

DESIGN

- Assist in preparation of documents for Schematic Design and Design Development
- Assist in developing design sketches, renderings, models and graphics for presentations
- Provide design support to project team members, including product research, documentation revisions, computer modeling, and renderings
- Committed to key firm principles including strong communication, teambuilding, excellence in design, quality control, and sustainability
- Supports specific project goals outlined by project team members and the PM

TECHNICAL

- Under guidance from others, assist in preparation of comprehensive Contract Documents
- Perform tasks in accordance with the C3S Project Delivery Manual

EDUCATION

- Professional Degree in Architecture / Interior Design

EXPERIENCE

- Demonstrated ability to work in REVIT, AutoCAD, Sketch-Up, and Photoshop
- Provide evidence of effective verbal and written communication skills
- Ability to work collaboratively and demonstrate a professional work ethic. Participate in professional growth including, Development Program (IDP) or other relevant program
- Research and understand the basic requirements for LEED AP and plan a course of study to achieve certification

Contact: Tim Ippolito TIppolito@Cube3.com